

FILL IN THE Bento Box

This blank Bento Box template will encourage kids to write and color in the main course and side dish items they'd like you to pack, helping you plan for weekly lunches and to-go meals that they'll actually eat.

A large, light blue rounded rectangular frame containing four white compartments. The top row has two square compartments. The bottom row has two larger compartments, one of which is divided by a diagonal line from the top-left corner to the bottom-right corner.
